LAST DAY

The County Teachers Adjourn Today—A Very Good Meeting.

TEXT BOOKS ARE CHANGED

A Good Resolution Was Passed Relative to the Trustee Boards.

TOPICS OF INTEREST DISCUSSED

The county teachers convened this morning at 8:30 o'clock. After the session this afternoon the institute will adjourn until next year.

Physiology and hygiene was taken up and discussed by Prof. Smart. Oral lessons and at what grade should they be introduced, teacher's duty to be physically able to teach, practical experiments, are teachers doing their whole duty on the question of narcotics, how much physical culture should the common school undertake and sanitary condition of school house grounds, were all touched on and the talk interesting.

Miss Lane Thomas spoke on the social functions of the teacher, and should we have a county board of education clothed with the authority to employ all teachers?

Prof. W. W. Morris told how to elevate the profession of a teacher and the morning session was then adjourned.

Prof. Joe Bagelale, the conjoiner, discussed the following topics which closed the afternoon session for the year.

Teaching as a trade, teaching as a profession, teaching: What is it? The institute then prepared a list of the best professional works and after the adjustment of some miscellaneous work the afternoon session closed.

The following resolutions were passed at yesterday afternoon's meeting:

To provide for a seven months school term in the rural districts.

To provide for a county taxation in lieu of a district taxation.

To provide for a fair and uniform salary of teachers holding the same class of certificates.

To provide for a county board of trustees composed of two men elected from each magisterial district to act with the county superintendent in the selection of teachers and the distribution of the school funds and to provide for a local trustee to act as custodian of the house and local interests.

The latter resolution was passed after several votes and the last vote stood 81 to 6.

The enrollment this morning was only 8, but the attendance as a whole was large and above the average.

Out of twenty-seven text books only two remained unchanged.

Walter Hogan Kills an Alleged Wheat Thief.

The Thief Was Advancing—He Was Released This Morning By the Authorities.

Walter Hogan, an employe of the Kivel Flouring Mills, at Princeton, shot and killed Hiram Davis of near Scottsburg, Ky., last night about 9:30, while the latter was attempting to steal wheat according to reports.

Hogan is not the watchman but happened to be at the mill last night and saw two men in the rear of the building stealing wheat. He telephoned the police and the owner of the mill and in that time the thieves made their escape. The officer arrived at the mill but found the men gone. He then instructed Hogan to make a roundabout tour and head the men off. This was done and the men were located. Hogan had a double barrel shotgun and informed the men that they would have to accompany him to the police station. Davis then began to advance on Hogan who raised the gun and fired. The load penetrated Davis' abdomen tearing a hole several inches in diameter. He lived only a short time afterward and died at 1 o'clock.

A guard was then placed over Hogan last night but this morning he was released on bond.

The shooting was done in self-defense Hogan claims, and the sympathy of the public seems to be with him.

BURIAL TOMORROW.

The remains of the late Rev. J. M. Frasier will be buried tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock. Services by Rector B. E. Reed, burial at Oak Grove.

WANTS HER PAY TRAGEDY

Young Lady of the Maxon's Mill Section of the County Sues the Carper Estate.

SHE ASKS FOR $1,000

The Deceased Was Infatuated With Her and Promised It For Attending Him.

HE WAS TO HAVE MARRIED HER

Miss Jennie Downes, a well known young lady of the Maxon's Mill section of the county, this morning through Greer and Reed filed suit in the circuit court against C. H. Pace, administrator of the estate of the late H. R. Carper, a former wealthy resident of near Seale, Marshall county, who had separated from his wife, divided the property and come to Mechanicsburg and become ill from pneumonia. About December 31 last he wrote the young lady, with whom he had been infatuated for some time past, and asked her to come and wait on him during his illness.

The letter, which doubtless denotes considerable affection for the girl, is a part of the suit, and shows that he thought a great deal of her, and intended to marry her when he recovered.

He agreed to give her, in case he died one thousand dollars.

The girl left her home and at his request went to administer to his wants, and he died. He would have married her had he recovered.

The girl now, in return for her affectionate devotion, and for the actual time and trouble taken on his account, asks for the $1,000 and asks that it be apportioned to her from the estate, which is valued at about $20,000.

The young lady is well known in the lower section of the county, and is about nineteen years old, while the deceased was about 35.

A SHINING MARK.

Sad Death This Afternoon of Miss Mary Halloran.

One of Paducah's Most Lovable Young Ladies No More.

Miss Mary Halloran, one of the most popular young ladies of the city, died from typhoid fever shortly after noon today at the Illinois Central hospital, after a four weeks' illness. She was taken to the hospital on July 24, and her condition gradually grew worse until several days ago when her life was despaired of, and at noon today she peacefully passed away.

It is seldom that death awakens such widespread sorrow as that of Miss Halloran has. She has been a resident of Paducah for many years, and no one was more liked and respected in a large circle of friends and acquaintances than she. Her admirers were many, and in society she was deservedly popular, and was a favorite wherever she was known.

A sad feature of her death was the departure of her sister, Mrs. G. W. Stickey, for her new home in Michigan about two weeks ago, when Miss Halloran's illness was thought not to be serious. Mrs. Stickey did not know of her critical condition until yesterday, and started at once for the city and will arrive tomorrow afternoon.

Miss Halloran was born and reared in Paducah, and spent most of her life here. She was 24 years old, and leaves besides a sister, Mrs. Stickey, three brothers, Messrs. Pat, John and Will Halloran, the latter of Evansville.

The funeral will be held at 8 o'clock Sunday afternoon from the church. The remains will be taken to the residence of Mr. W. F. Paxton, on Jefferson street, tomorrow morning.

Cody Killed at Ninth Court Last Night By Will Anderson.

THE MURDERER CAUGHT

Cody Is Alleged to Have Pursued Anderson, Alias "Frenchy," Who Killed Him.

INQUEST THIS AFTERNOON

Alex Cody, colored, was slain and almost instantly killed this morning at 8 o'clock at Ninth and Court streets by Will Anderson, alias "Frenchy." The trouble started in a saloon on the corner of Washington and Ninth, and the belligerent "worked" their way a block, and there the killing occurred.

After being stabbed to the heart Cody ran across the street and sank to a pool of his own blood just on the edge of the sidewalk near Mollie Niles', and was about dead when Officers Baker and Dagan arrived.

Captain Bailey and Officer Tom Potter were soon on the trail of the murderer, and caught him in the market house, near the north end, in front of Smith's butcher stall. He did not know that his victim was dead, although admitting that he had cut him, and informed of the consequences after being locked up.

The body was taken to Nance's undertaking establishment, where an inquest is being held this afternoon.

"Frenchy's" version of the trouble is that he was at the Washington and Ninth street saloon and gave a woman a dime to buy a can of beer. She took it and she and Cody drank it. When she came back for another dime, he declined to give it to her saying that she had divided the other with another man and he would give her no more.

Cody stepped up and called him a name, and of a sudden, he declared, and said that he, Anderson, drank a part of the beer. Anderson claims he then said, "Oh, you're lookin' fer trouble," and left.

He found that Cody was following him with a bottle. He increased his pace, and finally, being short winded, when Ninth and Court was reached, decided to run no farther, and as Cody came up and struck at him with a bottle, began cutting him with his knife. In his excitement he was unable to say how many times he cut him. After doing the work he made an effort to escape from the city and claims self-defense.

Anderson, who is well known by his more familiar title, "Frenchy," has always been considered peaceable, and has resided in the Garrison creek section of the county for some time, having come here from Baltimore ten years ago. He is employed by a cement company.

Cody has been laying about the city for some time past, and according to Marshal Collins was only recently released from the penitentiary. He appears to be about 30 years old, and when killed was working apparel.

Anderson is 44 years old, but does not look it.

His case was called in the police court this morning and the charge of murder against him was continued until next Friday.

Cody was sentenced to the penitentiary in June, over a year ago, for malicious cutting and had been back but a few weeks.

Mr. Ed Long, the backman, saw the trouble, and corroborates the prisoner in his version of the trouble, saying that Cody had a pop bottle trying to assault Anderson with it, and a knife as well.

The inquest was finished at 8 o'clock this afternoon, and the verdict of the jury was that the deceased came to his death from a knife wound inflicted by Will Anderson. It did not undertake to fix the responsibility.

Well Known Young Man at Kuttawa Was Killed Last Night.

Newton Riley, age 18, was shot and instantly killed last night about 8 o'clock at Kuttawa, by Al Tumblin, age 25.

Tumblin then fled and had not been captured at last reports.

The affair has created much excitement and the little town is turned topsy turvey over it.

Riley and Tumblin were attending a baseball game and the former, in a joking manner, addressed Tumblin as the "Superintendent of the Illinois Central railroad" and to this Tumblin replied in an insulting manner calling Riley a "— a — a —"

Riley then struck him in the nose with his fist but the affair was later straightened out and they parted apparently friends after apologies on both sides. Nothing more was thought of the incident until in the evening when Tumblin entered Saxton's drug store where Riley was seated in a chair. He pulled a pistol and fired at Riley killing him instantly. He then fled and has not been seen since the shooting.

Blood hounds have been secured and placed on the scent and it is a matter of a short time only before he will be captured.

Riley comes of a good family and was well known in Paducah. Tumblin is a married man and of a family and was an employe of the Illinois Central for years in the capacity of the operator of the pumping station before the people of Kuttawa placed in a public pump.

Since that time he has been employed in the Holt mills and has always been considered a peaceful man and this is the first trouble he has known to have been mixed up in.

The deceased was well known here having often visited Mr. Harry Owen. He was here last Friday, returned home Friday night.

He was on the seat with the driver when the wagon gave a sudden lurch as the driver whipped the horse, and the boy was knocked out, and as he fell grasped the wheel and held on to it until it dragged him underneath it as it made a revolution. It passed over his body near the waist and he suffered considerably until death relieved him.

BIG TRAINS.

Disabled Trains Have to Be Taken Away for Repairs.

Railroad Commissioner's Decision—Other Interesting Notes From the Railroad.

Two hundred freight cars, sent here from the different divisions of the Illinois Central for repairs, will be taken to Burnside shops in Chicago for repairs.

About fifty coal cars will be taken to Mattoon, Ill., for repairs and the trains of both classes of cars are being made up today.

The freight cars will be sent in bunches of ten and the first consignment will be sent today.

The burning of the car department planing mills, in the room and coach painting department, has caused the cars to be taken out of Paducah and this is the first consignment of cars that has gone out of this city for repairs after having been brought here for the same purpose in years. The work on the burned shop is progressing and the work of reconstruction will be commenced in the next few days.

The Illinois Central hospital authorities think that no telephone messages hereafter be sent into the hospital, as it is very annoying to have inquiries every few moments about the patients there, and cause a great deal of trouble. Information will be furnished to the newspapers when requested and the public will be asked and expected to get its information there.

Surgeon Marshall D. Dillon, of the railroad hospital corps, left today for a several weeks' visit east. Dr. H. F. Wilson, of Covington, has accepted the position recently made vacant by the resignation of Dr. Lee.

Chairman McChord, of the Kentucky state railroad commission, has decided that the Louisville and Paducah Valley railroad is a railroad within the meaning of the law. The question came up on the petition of the electric line to cross the tracks of the L. and N. at Anchorage. The law provides that no railroad in this state shall cross the tracks of another without the permission of the state railroad commission. The Paducah electric line wanted to cross the tracks of the L. and N. and the matter has been pending in the courts for some time, the contention being that an electric line is not a railroad within the meaning of the Kentucky law.

The electric company proposing to build a bridge twenty feet high over the L. and N. tracks at Anchorage. Judge Gregory, of the county court, is expected to hand down a decision in the same case at an early date, and unless there is a conflict between his decision and that of Chairman McChord, the crossing will be made. An electric line out of Ashland was recently decided to be a railroad within the meaning of the law, and the same view was taken in the Paducah Valley case.

The Illinois Central's gross earnings for the year ended June 30 were $37,000,000; operating expenses, $23,000,000; net earnings, $14,000,000, surplus, $15,000,000. This is 12 per cent. on its stock.

Mr. Tom Keegan, the day caller and Mr. Luke Covington, the night caller of the Illinois Central, have exchanged watches, effective last night.

Master Mechanic Barton returned from off the Fulton division of the Illinois Central last night.

Mr. John Trent has accepted a position in the master mechanic's office here.

The tank burned in the shop fire has been taken in the masonry shops for repairs. It was at first thought that the tank was too badly damaged to be of any value but a close inspection proved otherwise.

Mr. John Wicks, an extra hostler in the local yards, has been promoted to a run out of the city. He is succeeded by Mr. Joe Howard.

The railroad company has been notified of numerous claims having been lodged against it for damage to crops during the recent dry spell. Many claims are based on the engine sparks setting fire to crops. Claim Agent McCarty says that about $4,000 in claims have been lodged against the road between here and Fulton but many are fraudulent and an investigation always proves.

Supr. H. C. Wallace, Roadmaster Pat Galvin and Trainmaster F. A. Banks returned to Louisville today at noon after a brief business trip in the city.

The daughter of Yandusier Ferguson, who is suffering from injuries sustained in an accident several weeks ago is rapidly improving.

The exonsions run into Paducah yesterday from the different branches of the Illinois Central were orderly and not a fight or difficulty was reported.

FINGER BADLY MANGLED.
Mrs. Beulah Birch, a domestic, at the Well residence, corner Sixth and Broadway, got her hand caught in a box fan yesterday afternoon and one of the fingers badly mangled. Dr. Bentley was called and dressed the injuries.

FIFTY YEARS AGO.

Paducah Then Had the Greatest Storm in Her History.

Two Big Steamers Were Capsized in the River Here—Many Were Blown Away.

Fifty years ago today Paducah suffered from the worst storm in her history. Had such a disaster come at this time, it would have swept the entire city away.

It was on August 9th, in 1851, that the storm came. The river was full of big boats, which lay at the wharf. In those days they had veritable palaces on the rivers, and when the storm approached every precaution was taken to save the craft.

When the wind struck them, every boat but one, the Caroline E. Watkins, was broken loose, and two steamers in the Tennessee river a short distance above the city, the Dever and the Caledonia, were capsized, but strange to say not a single life was lost.

All the boats suffered more or less damage from the devastation. Many had their stacks blown away, and portions of their decks swept up no knows where.

"There was no damage done to the houses here," remarked Captain Joe Fowler this morning, "for there were darned few houses here then. If there had been any in those days, however, there would have been few of them left after that blow."

"Now just to illustrate what a tremendous wind it was," continued Captain Fowler, "there was a man named Fletcher who had come over from Illinois with a load of hay, corn or something. He had unhitched his yoke of oxen on the top of the levee, and when the wind came it seized these steers, lifted them and carried them 'head-on' across the river near the upper lake, landing them in the sand without hurting them. And if that man Fletcher was alive I could prove it."

FATAL FALL.

A Twelve Year-Old Boy Crushed Beneath Wagon.

One Wheel Passed Over His Body. Chances are Against His Recovery.

Tommy Pavren, a 12 year old boy, met with a serious and probable fatal accident this forenoon at the corner of Third and Adams streets. He was riding his wheel towards home, on Adams street near Second, and when he attempted to turn the corner was prevented by a big wagon loaded with lumber. He fell from his wheel and under the wagon, one wheel passing over his body near the hips.

Dr. Brooks, Night and Entanks were summoned and dressed the injuries. The accident will probably cost the little fellow his life, but he has a slim chance of recovery if the physicians said he was injured badly internally and that the chances are very much against his recovery. The boy was taken in his home and was resting under this afternoon. His father is a sawyer at the Langstaff-Mfg. Co., but is now in Metropolis, Ill.

GRAND LEADER,

323 BROADWAY.

IN THE POLICE COURT.

The Eighth of August seems to have been more boisterously celebrated than usual yesterday. Judge Sanders had a number of colored malefactors this morning charged with various things from trifles to a plain drunk.

Leon Kelly, colored, was fined $25 and costs and given ten days in jail for carrying a pistol.

A breach of the peace case against Will Whitfield was continued.

Belle Edwards was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk.

Ell Sims got a dollar for a similar offense.

Walter Summers was fined $5 and costs for a breach of the peace.

Wesley Burgess, colored, an employee of the railroad company, was charged with stealing coal, but said he worked for the company. He admitted he didn't own the coal, and the court ordered that if every man who worked for a railroad company had a right to take a sack of coal off the cars every day, there would be little left. He held Burgess over for grand jury action.

"Jaybird" Lynn is a bold thief. He wanted a new head-piece yesterday for Eighth of August and found a man asleep in a buggy in a wagon yard. He took the man's hat off his head and was arrested. The charge was made disorderly conduct and he was given thirty days on the street.

Walter Fortson, a half-witted negro charged with stealing a bicycle, case dismissed.

Ira Landrum was fined $10 and costs for being drunk and disorderly, and a case against Jim Bulger, a bartender, who struck him in the head with a bottle and was charged with malicious assault, was dismissed on motion of County Attorney Graves for lack of proof.

Elbert Robertson, was fined $1 and costs for a plain drunk, and W. C. Edwards, charged with a breach of the peace, was granted a continuance.

Hiram Crawford, colored, charged with cutting Dora Perkins, of Palten, was granted a continuance. The woman has disappeared, and seems to want to shield Crawford. She was out on the arm. Her recognition was ordered forfeited, and an attachment issued.

NO TROUBLE.

THERE HAD BEEN NO TROUBLE BETWEEN SONS AND WIVES.

Mrs. Poore, at Third and Monroe streets, states that a reporter last Monday misquoted her in saying that she stated there had been any trouble between the sons of her father, Rev. James Frazer, and their wives. There has never been any, she says, and this had nothing to do with the sad death of her father.
